MURPHY, the Jeweler.

By far the most clever of all vaudeville—if vaudeville it can be called—was the performance at the Opera-house last evening of the magician, Lafayette, and his company. The scenic display was far ahead of the average good shows, while the specialties which made up the production were performed by unmistakable artists. While the members of his company were of the best interest centered in Lafayette himself, and he was all that could be desired. His imitations of famous bandmasters were rich and in this line of his work alone he won the favor of his big audience. He carried a splendid hand with his organization and there is not a dull moment in all his evening's entertainment.

CONWAY—OSBORN.

Mr. W. F. Conway, 46 years old, of Cynthiana, one of Uncle Sam's Revenue Agents, and Miss Elizabeth C. Osborn, 30 years old, of South Ripley, were married yesterday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Osborn is one of Mason's fair and worthy daughters.

ELECTION HELD

New Officers Chosen for the Maysville Cemetery Company

At the fifty-sixth annual election of the Maysville Cemetery Company held in the law office of Sallee & Slatery Tuesday afternoon the following officers were elected to serve the current year—

President—J. James Wood.
Vice-President—Henry L. Newell.
Treasurer—Thomas R. Phister.
Secretary—Clarence L. Sallee.
Superintendent—W. D. Bradford.
Directors—J. H. Pecor, A. R. Glascock, J. James Wood, J. M. Lane, James H. Hall, Clarence L. Sallee, Henry L. Newell, Thomas R. Phister, Harry H. Barkley and W. E. Stallcup.

The Maysville Cemetery Company was incorporated February 23d, 1849, by the following: John Armstrong, John B. McIlwain, Nathaniel D. Hunter, William S. Allen, Richard Collins, Richard H. Stanton, Andrew M. Jannary, Thomas Y. Payne, Francis T. Hord and Joseph Brodick, all—with the possible exception of Mr. Brodick—having long since been laid to rest in the beautiful ground that was their care and pride in life. They were all distinguished citizens in their day; the impress of those men is with us now. Their memory is held as a sacred heritage in this community and will continue to be venerated for generations to come.

It will perhaps startle you to be informed that the sleeping in the lovely "City of the Dead" the number is larger than that of the population of this city. The last Government Census gave Maysville a citizenship of 6,500; the records of the two Cemeteries place the number buried in the hallowed grounds at 8,500. Two thousand more than the living souls in the community. Did you ever think of it?

$5,000 SUIT

A Wife Sues for Alienating the Affections of Her Husband

Mrs. Minnie M. Davenport has filed suit in the Mason Circuit Court against James Davenport and his wife, Carrie, in the sum of $5,000 for alienating the affections of her husband, George Davenport.

The petitioner states that in September, 1900, she was united in marriage to her husband, son of defendants, and from the date of her marriage until the winter of 1902-3 they lived happily together and were getting along nicely as husband and wife, and life with him was pleasant and joyous.

She further states that in the months of December, 1902, and January, 1903, there was a change in her husband's demeanor—from a kind and affectionate husband he became cruel and unkind,—notwithstanding there was no cause on her part for such conduct.

She recites further and affirms that this change was the result of the influence of James and Carrie Davenport, who basely and falsely maligned her character, and by such talk and persuasion poisoned the mind of her husband, and finally caused him to abandon her and take up his abode with his parents, whom she charges are the cause of all her domestic troubles, and for which she prays damages in the sum of $5,000.

Positive Proof From Maysville C. Be Brushed Lightly Aside.

The reader is forced to acknowledge that convincing proof from people in this locality is pre-eminently ahead of indorsements from everywhere else in our republic. Read this:
Mr. John H. Fansler of No. 209 East Fourth street says:

It is most pleasing to learn of a remedy which does all that is claimed for it when there are so many whose merits exist only on paper. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a valuable and reliable remedy, and this fact is substantiated by ample proof from their personal use. I procured the remedy at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

We are just through invoicing. We find that we have of some lots too many and of others merely a few. Both lots want to be sold and sold "quickly." Among them are a limited number of Men's and Young Men's Suits and Overcoats made by the well-known-to-you manufacturers Stein-Bloch, L. Adler Bros. & Co. and Garson-Meyer & Co. Most of these Suits and Overcoats are of the $20, $22.50 and $25 quality. See them in our East window and note the prices on them. The "alert" buyer, if he can find his size, will secure "good stuff" for LITTLE MONEY. DON'T FORGET TO ASK FOR GLOBE STAMPS.

MONEY SAVING MATTINGS

You are entirely wrong if you think Matting is sold only during the summer. We sell them all the year round. Of course they go faster in warm weather. However the winter volume of business is not insignificant.
Today we offer some attractive Matting Remnants, 5 to 18 yards in a piece. The best patterns are most quickly sold down to short lengths so you will find the prettiest designs in these small lots.
Prices are reduced as follows:
35c Linen Chain Matting 20c.
25c Linen Chain Matting 15c.

Unprecedented Reductions.

The demand for Women's Tailor-made Suits was never so large and continuous right through the winter as it has been this season. So our stock has been kept full long after it would ordinarily have been depleted. These hurry-out prices may seem almost unbelievable but they are absolute statements of original prices.

D. HUNT & SON.

Ten $22 to $35 Suits $15.

FURS.

Our furs have been sold to a vanishing point, scarcely more than a dozen pieces left, and this is not a bulletin of increased stocks, but decreased prices. We have just twelve furs too many from our view point, hence these inducements for their out-going.

$25 Boas $15. $15 Boas $10. $10 Boas $6½.
$5 Scarfs $3. $3.50 Scarfs $2.25.

... says that is a very re-
... that the Hon. J. M.
... the boss of Bourbon county,
... makes against Governor
BECKHAM, Auditor HAGER
and General PERCY HALY, his cabinet advisers and head of the Beckham machine. Mr.
... is a well known saloon-keeper of Paris. He asserts that in recognition of certain political services that he and Hon. South Trimble rendered and which they actually rendered to the Beckham machine when it was in sore straits last summer, the machine promised solemnly that the Paris saloon-keeper should name the Circuit Judge to be appointed by Governor BECKHAM to succeed
Judge CASTRILL. Mr. O'BRIEN promptly named the Hon. EMMET DICKSON of Bourbon, who was promptly approved by the Governor as "the best qualified man in the District."

A few days before this appointment was to be made, however, last month, there were rumors that the Governor had weakened on his "best qualified man in the District" and was bent on making a Woodford county alliance with the appointment in his gift. Mr. O'BRIEN hid himself to Frankfort, and declares he was personally assured by the Governor to give himself no uneasiness; that the place had been

... to DICKSON, who would get it. Mr.
O'BRIEN went home in obedience to this assurance of one gentleman to another, gave himself no uneasiness, and to his amazement Judge STOUT of Woodford was appointed, and the solemn promises to himself were filed away to become protested paper.

The statements we have made are Mr. O'BRIEN's version in private correspondence to Messrs. BECKHAM, HAGER and HALY, and not denied by any of them. The letters have since been made public in a sarcastic open letter to Governor BECKHAM. The Hon.
South TRIMBLE is cited to prove the truth of Mr. O'BRIEN's declaration as to the solemn promise. If Governor BECKHAM repudiates the agreement of Messrs. HAGER and HALY, it leaves these gentlemen in an awkward position, as having made promises they could not carry out. If he does not repudiate the agreement it leaves the Governor in an unenviable position.

It will not do to repudiate all of Mr.
O'BRIEN's statements. He is a trusted leader and will be believed by the people of Bourbon county. It was well known that the Judgeship had been promised to Mr. DICKSON, although the fact was well guarded by those who knew it. The significant point is that the Governor has thrown down Bourbon county in order to effect an alliance with Woodford for a purpose not known. It is believed that he has tied up with Senator BLACKBURN and will sacrifice Senator MCCREARY. The people who threw themselves on BLACKBURN's side last summer—if this should prove true—have as fine a prospect ahead as Mr. O'BRIEN had. There should be honor among politicians.

But what do the people of Kentucky think of this sordid political traffic in Judgeships? The spectacle is commended to Democrats over the state who had a foolish impression that the Administration had some purposes aside from personal politics.

BUSTER BROWN.

There are some fifty people engaged in the representation of Melville B. Raymond's "Buster Brown," the Richard F. Outcalt creation in the funny pages of The New York Herald, which comes to the Washington Opera-house on Friday night. The most prominent members of the company are Master Giovanni as Buster, Jack Bell as Tige, the dog, Frank Christie, Joseph T. Kelley, Bert Jordan, May Walsh, Caroline Kelly McCord, Nan Dodson, Mamie Goodrich, Amelia Baird and Rose Crouch, beside a chorus, a ballet and a number of beautiful girls, whose exquisite modern costumes have been made by Wamaker's New York house. Other costumes, including those for a bathing ballet, have been made by Eaves. This ballet has a very novel idea, the dresses illustrating the fashions and regulations of various bathing resorts. The scenery is elaborate and requires a sixty-foot car for its transportation. Seats now on sale at Ray's.

HELPING THE POOR

Wants of the Worthy Supplied By a Charitable Woman

A real Christian and charitable lady placed a sum of money in the hands of Mr. Harry B. Owens to be expended in buying food, fuel and raiment for the needy poor in the city.

Mr. Owens being a novice as to how, where and when to dispense charity, called on Mayor Stalencop for advice.

Mr. Robert Frost was suggested as the most likely person in an emergency of this kind, and together Harry and Robert started for the West End on a slumming expedition, and what the philanthropic young merchant saw in his rounds will not soon vanish from his memory.

One house entered consisted of a husband, wife and six children.

Squalor and want were in evidence at every turn—the children were barefoot, there was nothing to eat and no fuel to burn.

When asked as to his needs the man was rather stilted, and with some spirit replied—

"I don't want nothing. If I had work I could provide for my own family."

His name was taken, however, and their needs were supplied.

Another was the home of Richard Platt, the man who broke his leg by stepping off the C. and O. Short street bridge.

Mr. Frost asked Richard what he wanted and by the appearance of his surroundings his answer was truthful as well as philosophical, when he answered—

"I need everything."

And really he spoke the truth.

His wife, who earns $3 per week, was compelled to give up her work in order to attend her husband.

This family's wants were supplied.

And thus it went until the gamut was run. Many families were visited and in each instance received help.

Mr. Owens is now in shape, after his experience, to get up in a class meeting and tell the good brothers and sisters about the heathen land and people right here in our own midst.

Harry is now a firm believer in home missions, —he will give foreign missions the go-by hereafter.

Wallace Potts, colored, who murdered Amelia Lewis at Flemingsburg a few weeks ago, had his case continued in the Fleming Circuit Court.

A company of capitalists, composed of J. C. C. Mayo, Watson Kent Pritchard and others, have taken options on 3,000 shares of fire clay land in Carter county. About $35,000 is involved in the deal. Developments will begin at once.

The ice king is again master of the situation.

A number of towboats are laid up at Moseow.

The Virginia is in winter quarters in the East end of the Queen City harbor.

The Ohio river is falling from Pittsburgh to below Maysville. All dams have been lowered in the Kanawha.

The heavy ice has forced all the floating craft to the bank, and rivermen now fear another freeze-up.

The ferryboat Ollio Neville, which sank at Ripley a few days ago, is in an exceedingly bad condition if the ice continues for awhile.

The Kentucky river is reported to be frozen from its mouth, at Carrollton, to Frankfort. Several boats which sought refuge there have been forced to plow through the ice and go farther South.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company recently won a suit in Court, the facts of which are interesting to owners. While en route to New Orleans some time ago a deck hand jumped one of their boats at Memphis, Tenn. He sued the owners for his wages. The Court decided in favor of the owners and the deckhand lost all that was due him because he failed to make the trip. The case also brought out the fact that when a deckhand "jumps" a boat he lays himself liable to prosecution for breach of contract.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cruey, two of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, surprised

Mr. and Mrs. James Soister are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Wirline, at Ripley, O.

The congregation at Felicity has again called Elder T. P. Degman to preach for them. This congregation is one of the most devoted and delighted to speak to and the splendid choir there surely would inspire one to speak well.

Mrs. T. J. Murphy entertained with lunch last Friday evening in honor of her brother, Mr. Everett Lively of Charleston, W. Va. Quite a pleasant time was spent. Dainty refreshments were served. The table was most prettily decorated, and much credit is due Mrs. Murphy for the manner in which she entertained.
